

Products, training and operational support services for professional work at height and rescue

Cyclone locking pulley, alloy

P201

Heavy-duty pulley for hauling with locking cam

The Cyclone has been specifically designed for technicians to aid hauling of equipment and materials.

- Lightweight alloy construction
- Simple clean design for ease of rigging
- Low friction integrated pulley wheel
- Unique 'X Cam'[™] locking mechanism
- 100kg Working load

The CYCLONE is available as a part the complete WTG Lifting Kit (WK52). The kit includes all the components required to lift small loads.

Stainless steel version available for increased corrosion resistance - P20.

For use with 10.5 mm to 11.0 mm diameter rope.

NB: Not certified for lifting persons.

Specifications:

Size:

Materials: Alloy body, stainless cam, nylon wheel

EN test Mass: n/a

Loading: 100 kg SWL

Weight (kg): 0.34

Conformity: 2006/42/EC

Markets: Renewables, construction, telecoms

Specifications may change without notice.